

International CURE

Newsletter      Spring 2009

To Reduce Crime and Uplift World-wide Justice

Published by International CURE, Citizens United for the Rehabilitation of Errants, www.internationalcure.org
Po Box102, Katonah, NY 10536, cureny@bestweb.net

“He Ain’t Heavy”
by Gilbert Young

Contents of this Newsletter

- 4th International Conference Agenda,
Human Rights & Prison Reform, 12 panels on major human rights documents and their application to people in prison.      pages 1-4
- Human Rights in Africa,
a frank overview, from the book by Jeremy Sarkin.      pages 5-6
- The New Bell Prison in Cameroon,
a disturbing walk through big problems.      page 7
- A Plan: Goals; Assessments; Action,
human rights goals; assessments of how we comply;
recommendations/programs for reform.      page 8
- The African Prison Project,
African Prison Assessments;
African Prison Visits.      page 8
- A Report from Liberia CURE, war, overcrowding, disease, riots.      page 8
- A List of the Relevant Human Rights Documents,
31 from the U.N., Africa, and the Americas.      page 9
- Human Rights Quotes on Prisons and Justice, 44 sets, organized by CURE’s assessment checklist      pages 10-15
- CURE’s Assessment Checklist for Prisons and Justice,
21 sets of queries on key problem areas.      pages 16-18
- The Ethiopian Prison System,
a penetrating analysis; prisoner’s committees      pages 19-20
- The Photo Visits to African Prisons,
Alan Pogue’s journey in the African Prison Project.      page 21